Outline of Unrealised Potential

The purchaser of this idea is hereby given permission to own this idea and carry it out if he or she wishes in any way they see fit.

The work should comprise of the organisation of an exchange programme (with the relevant governments and/or institutions) of equestrian statues of various national heroes throughout the world. The idea is to encourage the swapping of these statues for example Arpad, chieftain of the Magyars in Budapest could replace George Washington in Washington DC and vice versa.

The owner of this work is given full rights by me to execute this work, London. April 2002.
